

A Strategic Partner in Developing and Executing a 100-Day Plan

CWH Advisors specializes in supporting private equity investors in unlocking and maximizing the full value of their healthcare investments. Our team of seasoned operator executives combines deep industry expertise with hands-on operational experience, ensuring that the critical first 100 days post-acquisition establishes a strong foundation for long-term success.

Comprehensive, Pragmatic Approach

Our 100-day planning process is built on a rigorous, operator-led diligence framework to assess the acquired company's operational capabilities, market position, and financial performance. We identify strengths and areas for improvement, aligning all recommendations with the investment thesis. Key deliverables include a structured, actionable 100-Day Plan that prioritizes initiatives, accelerates value creation, strengthens core operations, and drives growth.
